BECOME FAMOUS LOCALLY

A band of supporters await your next move.
Your community getting back in the groove.

This time with a twist, now choosing to shop,
with those locally found, their preferred stop.

'Support local', they chant. So now up to you!
Be just what they need, front of the queue.

With pride in your work, new-found loyalty to repay.
Serve them well, bring them back, more every day.

Shopkeepers, makers, hospitality and the trade.
Neighbourhood businesses, it's time to parade.

Your audience is listening, stand up tall, raise a hand.
Take action, demand attention, shine light on your brand.

Blow hard on your trumpet, get praise sung vocally.
Be the talk of the town. Become famous locally.

There is something special about spring, don't you think?

Is it the feeling of warm sunlight on your face?

Or opening up the windows for the first time? Let the fresh air in.

Flowers in bloom, symbolic of a fresh start. A rebirth.

Perhaps more significantly so this year than ever before.

Cautious optimism is in the air. Momentum is an invisible force.

Can you sense it? Look carefully, you'll see the signs.

More brave entrepreneurs took the leap in 2020 than in 2019.

More than half of the Fortune 500 companies were started in a recession.

Diamonds are formed under pressure.

Opportunity follows struggle.

You didn't make it this far, to only come this far.

Under starter's orders... Let the recovery commence.

ARE YOU MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR OUTDOOR SPACE?

It's possible, once rules relax, that businesses could be spilling out onto pavements, patios, terraces and rooftops to optimise their outdoor space.

Whether it's branded signage, shelter, or seating, contact Nettl. We can help you do more to prepare your greatest outdoors.

GAZEBOS

Printed gazebos are all the rage at farmer's markets, festivals and fairs. Our range now features new lower cost options, so you can make the most of your marketing budget.

In every case, the gazebo frame is the same. It's compact for storage, then pops up and locks into place.

You've got a choice of a plain black canopy, your name or logo printed on the front fascia or your branding fully printed on all sides and the top too.

Each canopy is a water resistant material that'll keep you and your stock dry if it rains.

Clip on the number of sides you want. A full height wall hangs from the top, or you can choose half height walls, which come with a rail. Why not print a half height wall for the front too, to act as a cool branded counter?

Remember you can buy all the printed parts separately, so you can change your messages for each season or each event, and keep using the same frame. Neat!

Frame contracts to compact size.

Pull the legs outwards - the frame builds itself.

Pop the canopy on top.

Arrange the corners of the canopy.

A man with a beard and tattoos is sitting in a shopping cart, pointing forward with his right hand. He is wearing a light-colored t-shirt, dark jeans, and white sneakers. The background is a solid pink color. The text "EMBRACE ECOMMERCE" is overlaid in large, white, bold letters.

EMBRACE ECOMMERCE

No one will ever buy shoes online.

Or at least they didn't, until Nick Swinmurn, founder of Zappos, believed they would. Free delivery, free returns, unparalleled customer service and 12 years later the Amazon acquisition boast annual revenues of over $2 billion.

So how do you feel about buying a car?

Do you enjoy perusing the forecourts? Trying the seats for size? The free coffee, a test drive? (Even if you do have to put up with the ever-so-attentive sales assistant). Let's face it, once you're driving the thing around you're sold, right? Hmm, maybe the thought of the sales process is enough to put some people off, but how can anyone resist that new car smell?

Well, it appears that smell is surplus to pre-sales requirements, as thousands flock to buy their next car online. No fuss, no haggling, no test drive. Just next day delivery. It's a game-changer.

If you can buy shoes online, and cars online, you can sell your thing online too. Not just 'can sell'. Must sell.

The relentless march online has been underway for years. £3 of every £10 is now spent online. 50% more than before the pandemic. Ecommerce was already growing substantially. The pandemic simply accelerated things. New online shoppers were forced to try it. And they liked it. Once habits form, behaviour changes forever.

It seems certain more sales will happen online. And not just consumers. Because behind every B2B transaction is a human.

And even if you don't sell products, you should be offering online bookings. Webinars, demos, or free trials. All smoothly transacted online. The successful churches we mentioned earlier all signed up to enable online donations. eCommerce isn't just essential, it's a post-pandemic survival skill.

Starting to sell online may cost less than you think. Contact us to get started free, or head to www.nettl.com/uk/nettl-commerce/

Great for lounging at your desk. Even better for those spontaneous stretching sessions. And if you need to pop out for a quick site visit, you'll still look the part.

But working from home doesn't mean you shouldn't look the business. Even if you are tempted by that cat filter.

Make the most of our fabric backdrops to add some professional whoosh to your Zooms. Look and feel the part with our brand new range of fashion-fit workwear, designed to help WFH professionals stay Fünkicomfi.

We all want to look our best. Pitching with your pants showing isn't a good look. Use our range of fabric backdrops to add whoosh to your Zoom. Conceal the ugly. Look like business.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER ME BY

Branding isn't just a logo, it's the whole customer experience. Every touch point with your business is an opportunity. Be memorable. Brand each step of the journey. Reinforce brand loyalty and evoke feel-good vibes.

When you're planning to connect with your clients, remember print makes us feel. This offers a huge opportunity for you to reach your customers when they're not strolling your street.

Sending something physical to a prospect or loyal customer can seriously bolster the impression you make. Interactions with direct mail have increased 11% versus the same time last year and door drops 15%.

They say it's better to give than receive. In business, it makes even more sense. Thanks to the 'burden of reciprocity', when you give gifts, people feel obliged to repay the favour. Like by buying something. Print a logo on your gifts and keep your brand front of their minds.

Looking for ways to make your marketing compelling? Exchange ideas with your local Nettl that will hit your target audience in the feels.

SEO VS PPC ... WHICH IS BETTER?

Both formidable click-getting contenders. So who to root for in this classic contest between two traffic-winning Goliaths? Which warrior should you back with your buck?

SEO

SEO stands for Search Engine Optimisation. It's the business of ranking organically (naturally, on merit) on search engines, for key words and phrases, and queries related to your business. Usually, around 10 or so organic listings appear on the search engine results page (SERP). Typically below a few ads.

PPC

PPC means Pay Per Click and is a generic term for paid advertising. You can of course pay 'per click' or 'per 1000 impressions' (PPM), but PPC is often used as a catchall for referring to any sort of paid placement. Google Ads, for example. Ads can usually be found at the top, bottom, and side of a results page. They might also have their own special section, like Google shopping. And appear as ads on other websites you visit.

What's best for your business will depend on your answers to these:

- What industry are you in?
- What products and services do you provide?
- How do you currently attract customers?
- What is your existing sales process?
- What are your goals and objectives?
- What kind of budget and resources do you have?

SEO wins on:

- Cost – Organic clicks are 'free'
- Sustainability – SEO efforts yield residual results
- Click Share – Organic results attract more clicks

PPC clinches the rounds on:

- Speed – Get listed instantly
- Effort – It's easier to get going than SEO
- Targeting – A large amount of customer targeting options

But the reality is that most businesses will benefit from SEO and PPC.

So if it's right for your business, and you have the resources and ambition to do both at the same time, then you should.
